- a. Nature of unpublished price sensitive information;
- b. Names of such persons who have shared the UPSI;
- c. Names of such persons with whom such UPSI is shared;
- d. PAN or any other identifier authorized by law where PAN is not available.

Such database shall not be outsourced and shall be maintained internally with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database. The Board of Directors shall further ensure that the structured digital database shall be preserved for a period of minimum eight years after completion of the relevant transactions and in the event of receipt of any information from SEBI regarding any investigation or enforcement proceedings, the relevant information in the structured digital database shall be preserved till the completion of such proceedings.

6 RESTRICTION ON TRADING WHEN IN POSSESSION OF UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION

Save as provided in this Code and the Regulations, no insider shall trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Provided that the insider may prove their innocence by demonstrating the circumstances including the following: –

- 6.1. the transaction is an off-market inter-se transfer between insiders who were in possession of the same unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of the provisions of the regulations and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision. Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained under clause 5.3 of this Code. Provided further that such off-market trades shall be reported by the insiders to the company within two working days and the Company shall notify the particulars of such trades to the stock exchanges within two trading days from receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.
- 6.2. the transaction was carried out through the block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of the unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of the provisions of the regulations and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision. Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained under clause 5.3 of this Code.
- 6.3. the transaction in question was carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona fide transaction.
- 6.4. the transaction in question was undertaken pursuant to the exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable regulations.
- 6.5. in the case of non-individual insiders: – (a) the individuals who were in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information when they took the decision to trade; and (b) appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that these regulations were not violated and no unpublished price sensitive information was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;

6.6. the trades were executed pursuant to a trading plan as approved by the Compliance Officer as per clause

7 TRADING PLAN

7.1 An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the compliance officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan. The Compliance Officer shall only approve a Trading Plan in accordance with the applicable provisions of the regulations.

7.2 Such trading plan shall-

- not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from public disclosure of the plan.
- not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results.
- entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months.
- not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence.
- set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected.
- not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

7.3 The Compliance Officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these regulations and shall be entitled to seek express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.

Provided that pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan.

Provided further that trading window norms and restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

7.4 The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

Provided that the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation and in such event the compliance officer shall confirm that the commencement ought to be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information.

7.5 Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities of the Company are listed.

8. TRADING WINDOW

Other than the period(s) for which the Trading Window is closed as prescribed hereunder, the same shall remain open for Trading in the securities of the Company.

8.1 The period prior to declaration of price sensitive information is considered sensitive for transaction in the Company's securities. The designated persons along with their immediate relatives shall not deal in the securities of the Company during the closure of trading window. Intimation of closure of trading window shall be given by the Compliance Officer when he determines that the designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Non-receipt of intimation of closure of Trading Window shall not validate any trades undertaken by the Designated Persons during the trading window closure period.

8.2 The trading window shall be, inter alia, closed at the time of-

- a. Declaration of financial results (quarterly, half-yearly and annual);
- b. Declaration of dividends (interim/final);
- c. Issue of securities by way of public/bonus/rights etc;
- d. Any major acquisition/expansion plans or execution of new projects; e. Amalgamation, mergers, takeovers and buy-back;
- f. Change in Key Managerial Personnel;
- g. Disposal of whole or substantially the whole of the undertaking.

8.3 The trading window shall be closed as and when the compliance officer deems fit but shall be opened 48 hours after the price sensitive information becomes generally available. However in case of declaration of financial results the trading window shall remain closed from the end of each quarter till the conclusion of 48 hours after the declaration of financial results.

8.4 In case of ESOPs, exercise of option may be allowed in the period when the Trading Window is close

9 PRE CLEARANCES OF TRADES

9.1 Any designated person (including their immediate relative) who intend to trade in the securities (single trade) of the Company during the free period (when the trading window is not closed) exceeding Rs. 10 lakhs in value or 10000 equity shares whichever is less (threshold limit) shall require to pre-clear (prior approval) the transactions by the Compliance Officer as per the procedure mentioned hereunder.

Pre clearance is not required in case of exercise of shares under ESOP but will be required in case of sale of the shares so acquired if it crosses the threshold. No designated person shall apply for pre-clearance of any trade if such person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed.

9.2 An application for pre-clearance of trade shall be made in Form I to the Compliance Officer along with an undertaking in favor of the Company that the designated person is not in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information, has not contravened the Code and has made full and true disclosure in the matter.

9.3 In case a designated person receives price sensitive information after signing of the undertaking but before the execution of the trade, he shall inform the compliance officer of the change in his position and he shall restrain from dealing in the securities till such information becomes public.

9.4 The Compliance Officer shall approve or reject the pre clearance application within 2 days from the date of acknowledgment. There shall be no obligation to give reasons for rejection of any application.

9.5 The designated persons shall report the trade executed or reason for not executing a trade after receipt of pre clearance in Form II within 3 calendar days from the expiry of the approved period.

9.6 The designated persons shall report the trade executed or reason for not executing a trade after receipt of pre clearance in Form II within 3 calendar days from the expiry of the approved period.

10. MINIMUM PERIOD OF HOLDING OF SECURITIES

10.1 All Designated Persons and their immediate relatives who buy or sell any number of shares of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction/contra trade i.e. sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following the prior transaction. All Designated Persons shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the Company at any time.

The aforesaid restrictions on entering into opposite transaction shall not apply to acquisition of securities in the primary market or pursuant to exercise of options vested under any ESOP Scheme(s) of the Company.

However in the case of personal emergency, the Compliance Officer may waive the holding period after recording in writing his or her reason in this regard. An application for the said purpose can be made to the Compliance Officer in FORM III.

10.2 In case, a contra trade is executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Securities and Exchange Board of India for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by Securities and Exchange Board of India under the Act. 10.3 In case where the Compliance Officer himself intends to deal in securities of the Company above the threshold limit, pre clearance from the Managing Director has to be obtained and similarly waiver in case of contra trade has to be obtained from the Managing Director.
